FR. RODRIGO MOLINA IS THE PRIESTLY SOUL
THAT INSPIRED THE QUEENSHIP OF MARY

«Mary is a mother who is close... To-day, Mary is within our world, within the Church of today's world with the living presence of a living being. Everything has an impact on her; she is not indifferent to anything that affects men.»

To the Reader

«Mary is the Lady of Illumination (...) to illuminate this dark world with God's light». Those were the words of Father Rodrigo Molina, mentor of The Queenship of Mary, QM. When we live in the dark, we yearn for a light to show us a path. That light is Jesus, light of the Father, light of God. Mary is the bearer, the communicator of that light.

The QM seeks to be Mary's transparency, the Queen Mother, and of her own light, Jesus. Caught in the darkness Mary brings us clarity, «And the Word became flesh» (John 1:14), Mary's flesh. And we can contemplate her light. A light that brings security and peace in the willing hearts.

Our Lady of Fatima conveyed that divine light to the little Shepherds. It is the Light of God what installed itself in Her Immaculate Heart as in a «blazing lighthouse» that shines with power and glows in the hearts of all of those who allow themselves to be touched by her motherly rays of love and tenderness. On May 13th, according to Sister Lucia, She opened her arms «communicating a very intense light (...) that penetrated our chest, reaching the innermost part of our souls and making us see ourselves in God, Who was that light».

Mary reigns illuminating. Her light is God himself made man, to be merciful with those who accept him. She is Queen because she is Mother. She is Queen from her motherly love and she only reigns in the hearts.

Lumen Reginae (The Queen's Light) medium of communication of QM, strives to be a straightforward and neat crystal through which our Mother and Queen fulfills our existence with the light of Jesus, light of hope and happiness.

Fatima's message is an authentic school where the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady teaches to children and all humanity the path to Heaven. .

It has been over a century since that memorable day of May 13, 1917 in which the Blessed Virgin came down from Heaven to Cova da Iría and manifested herself to the three humble little shepherds: Francisco, Jacinta y Lucia. In her second apparition, on June 13, 1917, the Virgin entrusted Lucia with the words: «Jesus wishes to use you in order to make me known and loved. He wishes to establish devotion to my Immaculate Heart in the world. I promise salvation to those who embrace it; and these souls will be beloved of God like flowers arranged by me to adorn His throne.»

The message from the Lady clothed with the Sun

The Message of Fatima is pertinent in the present since it revolves around the need for prayer, especially the Holy Rosary, and the penance, small sacrifices that repair the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, who ache for the sins of humankind. Our Lady warns all mankind, from 1917 and to this very day, that men must refrain from sin, from offending her Son.

She cautions us in a very special way against the sins of impurity, that are the ones that more souls lead to Hell. She also denounces the great damage caused to souls by indecent fashions that offend God so much and that are unfortunately alive today. Lastly, she asks us to pray a lot for priests and for world peace, for wars are but a punishment for the sins of men.

«Listening to her motherly advice let us do whatever Jesus tells us, and He says to all to do penance, amend life and flee from sin, the main cause of great divine punishments; that in the midst of this materialized and paganized world, in which all flesh has corrupted its ways, you be the sun and light that preserves and illuminates; that you carefully cultivate purity, that you return to the traditions of the holy austerity of the Gospel and that you live as sincere and convinced Catholics: spread around you the fragrance of Christ, and with assiduous prayer, particularly with the daily Rosary and with sacrifices inspired by the zeal, procure for all the souls of the sinners the life of grace and as such an eternal life.»

PP. Pius XII

To bring to life and spread the message of Fatima requires:

- Adoration of the Most Holy Trinity and the experience of the theological virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity
- Devotion and consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary
- Daily recitation of the Holy Rosary
- Reparation of the Immaculate Heart and of all sin, especially on every first Saturday
- Eucharistic devotion
- Fulfillment of State duties, accepting the will of God in all that He mandates
- Prayer and penance

«If people do what I tell you,
many souls will be saved
and there will be peace...»

The Fall of the Berlin Wall

In 1919, in an apparition to Sister Lucia, Our Lady declares that the consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart should be conducted «by the Church», that it should be done by the Pope together with all the Bishops. But before Our Lady's request reached us 14 years went by. Pius XII, performed the consecration twice, naming Russia explicitly. But this was a private initiative and it was not done together with all the Bishops.

To include all the Church in the consecration, and especially naming Russia, entailed enormous political challenges. Pius XII, John XIII and Saint Paul VI were not able to achieve what Our Lady asked for. It was Saint John Paul II who faced this obstacle. But he was forced to resort to a strategy to be able to name Russia. He sent a letter to all the Church's Bishops, inviting them to join him in the solemn consecration of the world that would take place on March 25, 1984.

In the letter, he did not name Russia but cited the consecration formula that he would read, based on the one used by Pius XII in 1952, which explicitly named Russia.

The ceremony was held. And, in only six years, there was a drastic change in the world, with the end of the Cold War, the fall of several communist regimes and of the Berlin Wall, the dissolution of the Soviet Union and the return of religious freedom for Russia and all other countries under its influence. And all was done without any bloodshed.

Analyzing the dates of the unexpected events, it can be noticed that they took place in the solemnities of the Church. The Soviet Union was dissolved on December 8th feast day of the Immaculate Conception. And the end of soviet communism, marked with the hoisting of the national flag in the Kremlin, happened on December 25th date that commemorates the birth of Jesus.

The Children Who Saw the Virgin

Francisco and Jacinta, two of the three little shepherds who saw the Holy Virgin in Fatima in 1917, were canonized on May 13th of 2017. Francisco was born on June 11th of 1908 in Fatima, Portugal, and Jacinta, his sister, on March 11th 1910. They both died from the Spanish flu on 1919 and 1920. They were 9 and 10 years old respectively.

Saint Jacinta Marto

«She was vivacious, a little capricious, but she had a good heart. One day we were playing at my parents' house and I challenged her: to hug and kiss my brother. She refused and asked me instead if she could kiss a crucifix that hung over the wall. She told me: "I can kiss Our Lord all the times you want." After the apparitions she lived passionately by the ideal of converting sinners and saving them from Hell. She used to say: "I think about the war that is about to come. A lot of people will die. And almost everyone will go to Hell!... Many priests will be murdered." When she was already very sick, she used to tell her cousin: "If I could put into the hearts of all, the fire that is burning in my own breast, and that makes me love the Hearts of Jesus and Mary so very much.»

Saint Francisco Marto

«He always smiled, he was kind, acquiescent, played with all the children, only every once in a while, he would retire when he noticed something was not right. On the first apparition, the Virgin told him that he must say many Rosaries to be able to go Heaven. Since then he used to withdraw. He would say to us: "Don't you remember that Our Lady said that I had to say many Rosaries?" During the final stage of his illness, when asked if he was suffering, he confessed: "Yes, but I suffer it all to console Our Lord." "I am going soon to Heaven; How I wish to be there to console Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin!»

The Angel and the Virgin asked the seers for their sacrifice as an act of reparation for the sins by which God is offended; and for the conversion of sinners. The children responded with heroic generosity: they did not eat their meal, their main sustenance for the day, instead they distributed amongst the poor. They offered to God to go without anything to drink for many days, even during the summer, and they carried a rope around their waists. Our Lady was pleased for all of their sacrifices but said not to wear the rope to bed.

MY IMMACULATE HEART WILL TRIUMPH

A Lady

Brighter Than the Sun

It was May 13th of 1917. Three little shepherds were pasturing the sheep in a place called Cova da Iria. The lady from Heaven, the Queen of the Immaculate Heart presents herself surrounded by light. She has a message for them... and for us. Close to midday, a strange light, that looked much like a flash of lightning to the shepherds, startled them. It is Lucia, the oldest of the children, who recalls...

«We began to go down the slope, hurrying the sheep along towards the road.

We were more or less halfway down the slope, and almost level with a large holm oak tree that stood there, when we saw another flash of lightning. We had only gone a few steps further when, there before us on a holm oak, we beheld a Lady all dressed in white. She was more brilliant than the sun, and radiated a light clearer and more intense than a crystal glass filled with sparkling water, when the rays of the burning sun shine through it. We stopped, astounded, before the apparition. We were so close that we were bathed in the light that surrounded Her, or rather, which radiated from Her. We were just a few feet from Her. Then Our Lady spoke to us:

- Do not be afraid. I will do you no harm.

- Where does Your Grace come from? – I asked.

- I am of Heaven»

Surrounded in light and peace, soft as the rain over the grass, solicitous Mother for the sake of her children who she sees at risk, the Blessed Virgin appeared in Fatima, delivering a message of salvation for the world to three innocent creatures, and revealing that she was from Heaven. Facing the atheistic materialism of the nascent communism, Heaven projected over humanity a ray of light to illuminate the dense night that threatened to envelop it wholly.

When the world closed its eyes to the supernatural and turned from God, the Mother of God and men came to warn us about the imminent danger and to teach us the way to avoid it, pleading for prayer and conversion.

That was how everything simply began. But from that date, that unknown place started to draw the attention of all social classes becoming, as Jesus, a sign of contradiction. And today, all roads lead to Fatima.

The Consecration to Our Lady

*«I have never found a devotional practice
more solid than this one...»*

Saint Louis-Marie Grignon de Montfort

The fullness of our Christian perfection consists in being conformed, united and consecrated to Jesus Christ. Therefore, the most perfect of all the devotions is, without any doubt, that which most perfectly conforms, unites and consecrates us to Him. Mary is the creature most conformed to Christ. When you give to Her, you give to her Son.

All throughout history, the Holy Spirit has inspired several saints to consecrate to Virgin Mary. In our days, in a special way, Our Lady of Fatima asks for Consecration to Her Immaculate Heart.

Knowing the benefits of this practice, in numerous occasions the Popes have encouraged to follow Her: «We exhort all the sons of the Church to renew personally their consecration to the Immaculate Heart of the Mother of the Church, and to live personally this noble act of worship through a life increasingly in conformity with the Divine Will, in a spirit of filial service, and devoted imitation of their Heavenly Queen.»

To establish devotion in the world to Mary's Immaculate Heart means to bring people to a full consecration of conversion, donation, intimate fondness, veneration and love. It is then, in this spirit of consecration and conversion, how God wants to establish in the world the devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary from Her Servant of God Sister Lucia

To Thee, oh Virgin Mary, Mother of God and Our Mother, to your Immaculate Heart I consecrate in complete donation to the Lord. Take me under your motherly protection, defend me against the dangers that surround me, help me to overcome temptations that lead me towards evil, to preserve the purity of my body, my spirit and my heart, so I can be, for you, brought to Jesus your Son and the Son of God, so with Him, be consecrated on the altar and offered to the Father, small Host of His love, to eternal praise of the Most Holy Trinity whom I adore and love, I believe in His love, and I hope in His Mercy to be able to sing with you Oh Mary! -Forever- the praise of His Glory. Sister Lucia, Coimbra, Oct. 29th, 1986.

Jesus Christ

Ultimate End for Worshiping Mary

God came into the world through Mary and through Mary we must go to Him

Saint Louis-Marie Grignion de Montfort writes: «Jesus Christ is the beginning and the end of all things. Because He is our only Master, Who has to teach us; our only Head to Whom we must be united; our only Model to Whom we should conform ourselves; our only Shepherd Who can feed us; our only Way Who can lead us; our only Truth Whom we must believe; our only Life Who can animate us; and our only All in all things Who can satisfy us.»

As members of QM, we know that Our Lady of the Encounter with God (Virgin Fatima) is the Way of the Way. She leads us to Jesus. Only in Jesus begins the Marian intervention with the statement «They have no wine» Only He leads his misguided and lost sons. «Do whatever He tells you.» The Virgin establishes a most perfect devotion to Jesus Christ and offers a smooth and certain way of reaching the Lord. This devotion is necessary to find Jesus Christ perfectly, loving him tenderly and serving him faithfully.

«Remember, my dear children, to shine in all places and in the sight of all, your true devotion to our kind Mother, in order to be everywhere the sweet fragrance of Jesus Christ.»

How God Is!

A spirituality marked by a sincere and deep Marian devotion, opens an immediate path to a Trinitarian experience in which the Christian life is shown and lived around the most Holy Trinity: ultimate end to which we should aspire

When the Virgin appeared in Fatima for the first time, Our Lady brings the children to the encounter with the One and Triune God:

«...she opened her hands, which emitted a most intense light that penetrated our chest, reaching the innermost part of our souls and making us see ourselves in God, Who was that light, more clearly than we can see ourselves in the best of mirrors. Then, driven by a deep inspiration, we knelt down and repeated inwardly: “O Most Holy Trinity, I adore Thee! My God, my God, I love Thee in the Most Blessed Sacrament”...»

That intimate and profound encounter with God, favored by Her own intimate and mysterious ways of the inner life, it is reflected by Sister Lucia in her memoirs after the third apparition, when she refers to Francisco: «In the third Apparition, Francisco seemed to be the one on whom the vision of hell made the least impression, though it did indeed have quite a considerable effect on him. What made the most powerful impression on him and what wholly absorbed him, was God, the Most Holy Trinity, perceived in that light which penetrated our inmost souls. Then he would say: we seemed to be on fire in that light, and yet we were not burned. How is God! We could never put it into words! Yes, that is something indeed which we could never express. But what a pity it is that He is so sad! If only I could console Him!»

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us: «This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity, this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed, is called Heaven. Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfillment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness.» (no.1024)

«At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea, where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth.» Lk. 1:39-40
